RICHMOND JOINS HOLDOUT CLASS, MAY YET PITCH

Dickers With Club for Salary Hike; Friel Says He'll Stand Pat

Ray Richmond, one of the Otlers'

Ray Richmond, one of the Oilers best pitching bets, who announced his relievement from baseball several weeks ago, has become a member of the holdout class—the Tubas club's only holdour, by the way.

This became known yesterday when it developed that Richmond has withdrawn his declaion to retirs from baseball and has made Business Manager Friel of the Oilers a proposition offering to pitch providing the salary specified in his contract is raised a certain amount. Friel and Bickmond had their conference two days ago.

Friel said last night he had of-fered to mest kichmond half way, although he did not mention the
